Our Washington Representatives Put in a Busy Day.

JUSTICE BREWER CONFIRMED.

A Large Number of Other Nominations Favorably Acted Upon—Over a Thousand Bills Introduced in the House. Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—In the senate yesterday a joint resolution was passed, extending to the 1st of March, 1890, the time for holding the International Marine conference.

The bill to reimburse the state of North Dakota for expenses incurred in holding its constitutional convention, was reported back and placed on the calendar.

A concurrent resolution tendering the thanks of congress to Chief Justice Fuller for his address on the occasion of the commemoration of the inauguration of President Washington was agreed to.

A resolution was reported by Mr. Hiseck authorizing the committee on the quadro-centennial celebration to give hearing to the advocates of the various localities proposed as to the site of the exposition. Mr. Plumb expressed his disbelief in the utility of such hearings. He said the only effect of them would be to give publicity to laudations of the cities of New York, Chicago and St. Louis. He did not believe a single senator or representative would be influenced in any way by such laudations. The resolution was referred.

The following joint resolution was offered by Mr. Morgan. It was read in full and laid over:

RESOLVED, By the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled; that the United States of America congratulates the people of Brazil on their just and peaceful assumption of the powers, duties and responsibilities of self-government based upon the free consent of the governed, expressed in their repudiation of monarchy rule and in their recent adoption of a republican form of government; and that the United States of Brazil is, by this act, recognized as a lawful and rightful government; and that said republic is of right entitled to exercise and enjoy international comity and all the benefits of the laws of nations, as a sovereign power; and the benefits of all rights, privileges and advantages under the existing treaties that were concluded between the United States of America and the late Empire of Brazil; and that this declaration of the state of the public laws in the United States of America shall be notified to the United States of Brazil by the president; and that the president by his proclamation shall require the people and government of the United States and of the several states, and all persons in authority therein, to recognize the flag of the United States of Brazil as the flag of a free sovereign and independent state.

Mr. Mitchell's resolution calling on the postmaster general for estimates of the cost of extending the free delivery system to towns of 3,000 and 5,000 inhabitants was reported back and agreed to.

A report of the secretary of the interior in relation to the agreement with the Coeur d'Alene Indians for the purchase of certain portions of their land was read and referred.

Mr. Blair reported back his bill to provide for the establishment and temporary support of common schools. He gave notice that as soon as possible after the holiday recess he would call it up for action. The bill was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Coke offered a resolution calling on the attorney general for information as to the attack on Justice Field, in California, and the killing of David S. Terry by Deputy Marshal Nagle. It was laid over.

The senate then went into secret session. At 4 o'clock the senate adjourned.

Confirmed in Secret Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—In the secret session of the senate a great deal of time was spent on the nomination of Associate Justice Brewer. Senator Plumb, whose absence Tuesday endangered Mr. Brewer's chances of confirmation, was present to explain Judge Brewer's decisions in the Kansas prohibition cases and defend them. After a great deal of unimportant and desultory debate, the senate by a vote of 52 to 11 confirmed the nomination. Senators Moody and Pettigrew, of South Dakota, voted against the nomination on the ground that Judge Brewer recently appointed a Kansas man clerk of the court in their state. The other negative votes were those of Blair, Allison, Wilson of Iowa, Reagan, Colquitt, Berry, Jones of Arkansas, and Call.

The senate then confirmed the following other nominations:

William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, to be minister to Germany.
Solomon Hirsch, of Oregon, to be minister to Turkey.

Thomas H. Anderson, of Ohio, minister resident and consul general to Bolivia.

Frederick Douglass, of the District of Columbia, minister resident and consul general to Hayti.

A. Loudon Snowden, of Pennsylvania, minister resident and consul general to Roumania, Serbia and Greece.

Arthur W. Barrett, of Massachusetts, secretary of the legation to Venezuela.
John W. Chew, of the District of Columbia, secretary of the legation at Vienna.

Robert S. McCormick, of Illinois, second secretary of the legation at London.
Frank W. Palmer, of Illinois, to be public printer.

Wakefield G. Frye, of Maine, consul general at Halifax.

August O. Bourn, of Rhode Island, consul general at Rome.

Warner P. Sutton, of Michigan, consul general at Nuevo Laredo.
Evans Blake, of Illinois, consul at Springfield.

Levi W. Brown, of Ohio, consul at Glasgow.

John B. Osborne, of Pennsylvania, consul at Ghent.

Charles R. Pope, of Missouri, consul at Toronto.

William T. Rice, of Massachusetts, consul at Leghorn.

George W. Roosevelt, of Pennsylvania, consul at Brussels.

Archibald J. Sampson, of Colorado, consul at Paso del Norte.

Thomas H. Sherman, of the District of Columbia, consul at Liverpool.

John A. Tibbitts, of Connecticut, consul at Bradford.

Daniel B. Hubbard, consul at Annaberg.

Benjamin H. Miller, of Maryland, Indian inspector.

Arthur M. Tinker, of Massachusetts, Indian inspector.

Commodore Francis M. Ramsay to be chief of the bureau of navigation.

Capt. George Dewey, chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting.

Joseph P. McIntyre, of Illinois, captain in the navy, and a large number of naval promotions.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The house devoted most of the day to the introduction of bills and joint resolutions under a call of states.

A joint resolution was passed extending the limit of the international marine conference to March 1, 1890.

A resolution reported from the Silcott committee authorizing the sergeant-at-arms to offer a reward of $5,000 for the arrest and delivery to the marshal of the District of Columbia of C. E. Silcott, the absconding cashier, was adopted.

A concurrent resolution for adjournment of congress Dec. 21 to Jan. 6 reported from the ways and means committee was agreed to, 152 to 36.

A call of states was ordered, and a large number of bills introduced.

At the conclusion of this business the deaths of James Laird, of Nebraska, S. S. Cox, of New York, and R. W. Townsend, of Illinois, were announced to the house, which as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased members, at 6 o'clock adjourned until Friday.

Ten hundred and sixty-four bills were introduced in the house under call of the states. Many of them were duplicates of bills introduced in former congresses. A dozen measures based on the Blair educational bill were introduced, and nearly a score of propositions favoring the free coinage of silver were presented.

Among the most important bills introduced in the house under the call of states, were the following:

By Mr. Wheeler, of Alabama, for the relief of the Merchant Marine of the United States, engaged in foreign trade. This bill provides for the payment of thirty cents per ton to vessels built and owned wholly in the United States, engaged in foreign trade, for each 1,000 miles sailed for a term of years.

By Mr. McKee, to define and tax trusts. This bill provides that a tax of 25 per cent. with no drawback upon products of trusts. The bill authorizes the president, when he is satisfied that a trust has enhanced the price of any article, to issue a proclamation suspending the collection of all customs duties or import taxes on like articles brought from foreign countries in force until revoked by the president; to repeal all laws for the accumulation of gold for the redemption of treasury notes; the direct tax bill, and to provide for the free coinage of silver.

By Mr. Cheadle, establishing a bureau of appointments. This bill provides for the establishment at the National capital of a bureau of appointments to classify the clerks in the departmental service of the civil service of the United States.

By Mr. Kerr, for the creation of a permanent tribunal to settle disputes between the United States, Great Britain, France and other countries.

By Mr. Tracey, of New York, for the enforcement of the eight-hour law on government premises, and to prevent the importation of convict-made goods.

By Mr. Bowden, of Virginia, to abolish the internal revenue tax upon tobacco in all its forms, and upon spirits distilled from fruit.

Mr. Browne, of Indiana, introduced a similar bill.

By Mr. Post, of Illinois, a bill to reduce letter postage to one cent per ounce.

By Mr. Williams, of Illinois, to place sugar on the free list.

By Mr. Payson, of Illinois, appropriating $75,000 for the payment of the unpaid salaries of members of the house of the Fifty-first congress, caused by the Silcott embezzlement.

By Mr. Lockery, of Missouri, reintroduced that part of the Mills bill reducing the duty on lumber, salt in bags, barrels, etc., woolen and worsted cloths, clothing, already made, and on all carpets and carpetings.

By Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, to establish a postal telegraph system.

By Mr. Moore, of New Hampshire, to repeal the interstate commerce law.

By Mr. O'Donnell, of Michigan, to repeal the duty on sugar and to provide for the payment of a bounty for its cultivation in the United States.

By Mr. McMullin, of Tennessee, a resolution directing the secretary of state to notify the republic of Brazil through the proper authority of the recognition of that republic by the United States.

Among the bills introduced in the senate was one by Mr. Ingalls, for the general welfare of the United States. The bill provides that schools to educate all youths under 21 and over 4 years, not otherwise educated, shall be established; that a board of National education, consisting of one member from the District of Columbia and one from each of the states and territories, shall be organized, the members to be nominated by the president and confirmed by the senate, and to hold office for one year and to receive per diem pay, amount not mentioned. They are to meet in Washington annually. Congress shall appropriate money for this purpose. The schools are to be under the control of the National board, the board to recommend to the president for adoption by congress all such rules, methods and means as seems to establish a perfect system of National education.

Mr. Hoar introduced a bill to establish a prison and reformatory for persons convicted of violating the laws of the United States.

Army Desertions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Secretary Proctor is making an effort to reduce desertions in the army to a minimum and is giving the subject much personal attention. He receives monthly reports from all the regiments, showing the desertions during each month. The reports for November have been tabulated and showing 135 desertions from the force of 24,000 enlisted men. The desertions among the colored regiments are fewer than among the white troops. The greatest number of desertions was at Presidio barracks, San Francisco, where thirteen men out of 547 stationed there took French leave last month.

Sioux Chiefs in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The Sioux Indian chiefs had a conference with Secretary Noble yesterday. White Swan, John Gras and others made long speeches detailing their grievances and complaints. Secretary Noble promised to look into the matter, and the Indians went away contented and happy. The Indians will probably call on the "Great Father" at the White House to-morrow.

THE SNEEZING EPIDEMIC.

The New York Board of Health Disposed to Slight It—Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The continuous rain and fog that still besiege this city make the possibility of an epidemic of "La Grippe" a bit more than probable. Several more cases of suspicious sneezing are reported, but the board of health refuses to recognize the disease.

They say that even if it does come it will be more disagreeable than dangerous, and that they have plenty to do in ferreting out dangerous contagious diseases. It won't hurt the population to sneeze, and it may remind the thoughtless that their noses need wiping.

The Pan-American delegates now in this city don't like the idea of carrying "La Grippe" to South America.

A number of cases of Russian influenza are reported. A reporter on "The World," a Wall street broker and a police captain are among the sufferers.

Dates of Epidemics.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Health Commissioner Wickersham has compiled a chronological table of the appearances of influenza epidemics as far back as the fourteenth century. The noteworthy thing about the record is that the disease disappears for a period of from thirty to fifty years, recurs at intervals of one or two years once or twice and then disappears to return at the end of another cycle.

The record in America for the nineteenth century is nearly similar to that of all centuries since the fourteenth. It reads: 1800, 1803, 1831, 1833, 1837 and 1843. There has been no epidemic of catarrh since '43, shortly after the death of the grandfather of the present president.

A Dozen Cases in Boston.

BOSTON, Dec. 19.—A prominent physician said that there are a dozen cases of influenza in Boston, and that there is good reason to believe the affection will become general in this city.

Spreading in Germany.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The influenza epidemic is spreading in central and southern Germany. A large number of cases are reported in Munich, Mayence, Cassel and Leipzig.

Quickest Book Ever Made.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—One of the most remarkable feats in the history of book making has just been accomplished in this city. Twenty-four hours to the minute from the rendering of the verdict of a complete history of the Cronin case, from its inception up to the scenes of Monday night, making a volume of 576 pages, cloth-bound and gilt lettered, was laid on the desk of the United Press. It is entitled "The Crime of the Century," prepared by Henry M. Hunt and published by the Peoples' Publishing company. This record of rapid publication it is said has never been equalled.

Boil Your Cocoanuts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The United States consul at Santiago de Cuba, in a report to the state department says a small insect called the coccus diaspidis vandilicus de galves is playing sad havoc with the producing coconut trees in Cuba, and at one time threatened their annihilation. It is suggested by Professor Gundlach, of Havana, that all cocoanuts received in the United States be dipped in boiling water before being used.

Explosion of Four Hundred Cartridges.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 19.—A terrific explosion occurred yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of the state arsenal. Janitor Mills and his assistant, Adam Zahn, were loading blank cartridges in the arsenal, and from some unknown cause 400 cartridges exploded. Mills was badly burned about the head and will die. Zahn's head and face are badly burned. The building was badly damaged.

Mine Shaft Burned.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 19.—The shaft of the Standard mines at Mt. Pleasant took fire from natural gas yesterday, and with all the machinery was entirely destroyed. Loss $20,000. Several hundred men are idle in consequence.

Jockey Stone Resentenced.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Jockey James Stone has been resented to be hanged on Feb. 7 for shooting and killing Henry Miller, a bartender at Coney Island in June last.

No Health at All Now.

FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Dec. 19.—Elbridge Thompson, of Limestone, aged 60, hanged himself yesterday because of poor health.

Wrecks on the Road.

Accidents to a Number of Freight Trains.

COLLISION ON A HIGH TRESTLE.

Coal Cars on the Hocking Valley Railroad

Hurled Into a Ditch Fifty Feet Below. Engineer and Fireman Receive Fatal Injuries—Accidents on Other Roads.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 19.—Two freight trains on the Hocking Valley railroad collided on the trestle north of the city at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The train from the north was running with orders to meet the northbound train at Delaware while the southbound train was ordered to go ahead. They met on the trestle, throwing three coal cars fifty feet into the ditch below.

Both engineer and fireman of the southbound train jumped, receiving only slight injuries. The fireman of the other train jumped fifty feet, receiving fatal injuries, and the engineer of the same train remained on the engine and will die from his injuries.

Freight Trains Breaks in Two.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 19.—On the Denver and Rio Grande railway, near Walsenberg, last night, a long freight train broke in two, and the rear portion overtook the front portion on a down grade, wrecking eight cars of lumber and seven cars of cattle, killing or mangle nearly all the animals and causing the death of Engineer William G. Giever and Fireman Thomas Baker. Two brakemen, W. H. Ferring and D. Edmonson, were severely injured.

Another of the Same Kind.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 19.—A heavy through freight train from New York to Oswego broke in two on the New York, Ontario and Western road, near Central square, last night. The rear end crashed into the first, completely wrecking the locomotive and five cars. The tracks were blocked several hours, and passengers were transferred. A brakeman, name unknown, was badly injured.

Tracks Blocked by Wrecked Cars.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 19.—At 8:20 yesterday morning freight train No. 333 ran into the rear of freight No. 331 on the Baltimore and Potomac railway at Calverton. Seven cars and engine 333 were wrecked. Both tracks are blocked. Three northbound and two southbound passengers were delayed several hours by the accident. Engineer W. Minick was seriously hurt.

One on the West Shore.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 19.—A freight train on the West Shore road was wrecked at Memphis yesterday. Fifteen empty cars were smashed. John Command, 15 years old, of this city, was killed while stealing a ride. His three companions escaped with slight injuries. All traffic was interrupted for several hours.

ASKING GOVERNMENT AID.

Quarter of a Million Dollars Wanted to Repair Flood Damages in California.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 19.—The floods of the last week caused an immense break in the levee along the Sacramento river about two miles below this city. The water has been pouring through this opening in the bank ever since and a bar has commenced to form across the river below the break, consequently fears are entertained here that the channel of the river would change, and that navigation would be destroyed.

Governor Waterman held a conference with a number of citizens yesterday and it was determined to bring the matter to the attention of the general government at once. The governor at once sent the following dispatch to Senator Stanford: "Sacramento river is in danger of changing its channels. There is a break two miles below here, which is 1,000 feet wide, an immense bar is forming below the break across the river. As hydraulic mining has based the appropriation of $250,000 in the hands of the war department, is available, and ought to be used now to save the navigation of the river."

This will be followed by lengthy letters explaining the situation, which will be sent over the name of the governor to the California senators and representatives, with a request that they urge upon the war department the necessity of taking immediate action in the matter.

IN THE NORTH SEA.

Two Steamers Collide and Both Go to the Bottom.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—A dispatch just received here states that an Ostend fishing smack has picked up two ship boats in the North sea. One was marked Gan Quan Sia, and the other Leerdam. Steamers bearing their names are supposed to have collided. The steamer Gan Quan Sia is a British vessel, which left Hioa via Suez canal Nov. 25 for London. The steamer Leerdam hailed from Rotterdam for South America.

The agents of the Netherlands line of steamers have learned that the passengers of the steamer Leerdam have been landed safely at Hamburg. The fate of those on board the steamer Gan Quan Sia, with which the Leerdam was in collision in the North sea, is unknown. Both vessels went down.

The Gan Quan Sia's Passengers Landed. LONDON, Dec. 19.—All the persons from the Gan Quan Sia have been landed at Cirkhaven by a French steamer.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1889.

HON. M. C. ALFORD, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has called a caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature, to be held at Frankfort Saturday, December 28th, at 3 p. m., that unity of action may be had in the organization of the two branches of the General Assembly.

THE latest news from Washington City in reference to Mr. T. C. McDowell's appointment as Collector is that Judge Thomas has filed, or will file, a protest against the confirmation. He is reported as saying he didn't get out of the way "to let a boy in." We'll venture a prediction, however, and that is, McDowell's appointment will be confirmed if the Senate ever gets a chance at it.

"MOODY, one of the Senators from the new State of South Dakota, is evidently a man of thrift," says the Buffalo Courier. "He has been a Senator but two or three days; but, according to a Washington dispatch, his little son, Warren Moody, has already been made a Senate page and is drawing a salary of $2.50 a day, Sundays and holidays included. It has been a long time since a father and a son have been contemporaneous 'servants of the people' as a Senator and a page in the United States Senate. But the thing has a genuine Harrisonian flavor."

THERE'S no mistaking honest Grover Cleveland's increasing popularity. As the Louisville Times says: "Wherever he sits is the head of Uncle Sam's table, whether it be spread in the White House or in a Boston Club House. Mr. Cleveland's utterances, private citizen though he be, attract more attention, provoke more discussion and meet with more approval than do those of any other citizen in public office or in private station. More than anything else the man suggests strength of character, and that is what commands most respect among rugged Americans. Added to his strength of character is a transparent honesty, guided and directed by a giant mind, all of which combine to make Mr. Cleveland the foremost American of the day. His Boston speech has electrified Democrats in every quarter of the Union, and there is encouragement in that, and it has thrown certain Republican editors and statesmen into the rabies, and there is comfort in that."

Something More in Reference to McDowell's Appointment.

The utterly contemptible squad which did all in its puny might to bulldoze the President to prevent the appointment of Mrs. Goodloe to fill out the term made vacant by the tragic death of her gallant husband; and then, having ignominiously failed, with sneaking and treacherous hypocrisy, pretended to have withdrawn all opposition so soon as they had known of her application;—this sweet-scented gang of sportsmen pretend to be dreadfully concerned because Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson spoke a kindly word for the grief-stricken widow of his dead friend. And yet it never occurred to their chaste minds and generous hearts, that there was the slightest impropriety in Senator Sherman accompanying George M. Thomas to the Treasury and urging the appointment of that notorious corruptionist upon the Secretary, nor in the Republican Representative from the Portsmouth district lending the gang the support and prestige of his mighty presence in their fruitless interview with the President. The joke of the whole business comes in in the fact, that the claim of these fellows on Sherman is, that their unscrupulous leader, Thomas, was one of his henchmen in their bitter fight against the nomination of President Harrison; and they have not sense enough to see that this constitutes no claim upon the recognition of the statesman from Indiana;—in personal merit and qualification the man to whose coat-tails they cling is remarkably deficient; he is as ignorant of law as he is unmindful of his obligation to those who have served him, and no man in this district could have been found whose appointment as Collector would have aroused more general condemnation. The gang are a mere "hand to mouth" set in their statements, without regard to consistency, logic or truth.

And then they exercise their well-mannered and gentlemanly sense because Major Henry C. McDowell, the father of the capable young Collector, and the son himself, "affiliate with Democrats." As neither votes for Democrats against Republicans, this must mean that they clamor against the confirmation of Mr. Thomas C. McDowell because his father and he associate with Democrats; that they are both gentlemen, in fact, and that in their intercourse with society they are not controlled by political consideration; in truth, perhaps, that in extending invitations to their homes and tables they possibly prefer a Democrat who is a gentleman to a Republican who is a blackguard. It is a fact that must be admitted, that both of the McDowells are known to be men of sense, of integrity, of business capacity, of good morals, of education, of good manners; and that those qualities have made, and will continue to make, them respected by Democrats as well as by Republicans; and that in their social intercourse they have the decency to banish the prejudices of heated partisanship. If they limited their personal association to Republicans, their acquaintance with gentlemen in Lexington would be far more restricted than it is at present. How would some of the would-be Republican leaders in Maysville relish it, if it should be announced that they desired no personal association with Democrats and wanted no Democrat to buy goods from them? Had such an understanding prevailed, it may be presumed that their ability to buy negro votes in prospective elections would be somewhat circumscribed.

"THE Maysville Republican congratulates the country," says the Louisville Times, "upon the fact that custom receipts for November, 1889, are greater by $1,225,000 than for November, 1888. That is marvelous talk for a Republican editor, who thinks that the country would be even more prosperous if no foreign goods at all were permitted to land at our ports. Can it be possible that the Republican is going to flop into the free trade camp?"

And the Covington Commonwealth remarks that the increase in the custom receipts "may show a greater quantity of imports—not a better state of business."

To get the matter down to a plain matter-of-fact statement the increase referred to simply shows that more foreign-made goods were imported in November this year than in November last year. Brother Davis will have to explain to his protectionist friends why he is cackling over such a showing.

River Items.

The Andes is due down this afternoon and Bostona to-night. Due up: Telegraph and Rainbow to-night.

Captain Edgington has bought the fast little stern-wheel packet, M. P. Wells, of Pomeroy, and will enter her next Monday in the Maysville and Augusta trade, making two trips a day. She is a splendid little steamer, nicely finished. The price was about $8,500.

A Card.

The rumor is being circulated that I have withdrawn from the race for Collector and Treasurer. For the benefit of my friends I take pleasure in saying that I am in the race to stay.

Very Respectfully,

AUSTIN HOLMES.

RENO-PHISTER.

A Brilliant Nuptial Event at the Central Presbyterian Church.

Particulars of the Marriage—An Elegant Reception Follows the Ceremony.

The Central Presbyterian Church was the scene of brilliant nuptial event last evening.

At 6:30 o'clock Mr. Herbert N. Reno, of Cincinnati, and Miss Belle Davis Phister, of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony, Rev. Dr. Tinsley, of Walnut Hills, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. D. D. Chapin, rector of the Church of the Nativity of this city.

The wedding was very exclusive, only those who had received invitations being admitted to the church. The altar was very prettily arranged with flowers and plants for the occasion.

At the appointed hour the bridal party filed into the church as the joyous notes of the wedding march pealed forth in response to the skilled touch of Miss Grace Paddock, who presided at the organ. First came the ushers, Mr. Wm. Stewart, of Cincinnati, and Dr. C. C. Owens, Geo. C. Keith and Thomas R. Phister, of this city. They were followed by the bridesmaid and her attendant—Miss Irene Orr, of Covington, and Mr. Earl Derby, of Cincinnati. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Etta Everett, and then followed the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The groom accompanied by his brother, Mr. C. Stowe Reno, met them at the altar, having approached from a side entrance. The beautiful and impressive Episcopal service was pronounced, and the happy party filed out, and were driven to the home of the bride's parents, where an elegant reception awaited them.

The bride wore a lovely costume of white faille, crystal embroidered gauze, tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses and ferns. Her only ornament was an elegant diamond crescent, a present from the groom.

The maid of honor was attired in cream gauze, festooned with roses. She carried a bouquet of Catherine Mermet roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Orr, wore a pretty costume of embroidered net, and carried Mareschal Neil roses.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the reception. The bride is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Phister. The groom is Secretary of the Equitable Insurance Company of Cincinnati.

The wedding gifts were many, and very elegant. The groom presented the maid of honor and the bridesmaid with silver bon-bon boxes, and the groomsmen and ushers with handsome scarf pins.

At 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Reno left on the F. F. V., for New York. They will visit several points in the East on their bridal trip.

Among the guests from Cincinnati besides those already mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Reno, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brown, Mrs. Avery and daughter and Mr. Douglass Neare.

HUNT HANGED.

A Neat Execution at Paris—The Murderer of James Abnee Swung Into Eternity.

Pat Hunt was executed at Paris yesterday morning for the murder of James Abnee. A special says: "Hunt hoped to the last. As the hour of death drew near he was told that his wife, now in the 'pen,' had confessed that her husband had killed Rick Thomas. Hunt positively denied the statement and persisted in his assertion of innocence to the last. To the priest who interviewed him just before he went to the scaffold he said he had nothing to confess; was not afraid to die; that he forgave all his enemies, and would die an innocent man.

"Fathers Donnelly, Jones and Redmon attended him. His iron nerves never failed him, and he never moved a muscle nor betrayed the least sign of fear. He ate a hearty breakfast, and at 10:13 ascended the scaffold calmly. At 10:15 the drop fell. He was pronounced dead at 10:25, and cut down five minutes later.

"He was the seventh man executed on the gallows used. The others were Dan Timberlake, Ike Turner, John Bush and Tuck Agee, executed at Lexington; John Bulgar at Maysville, and Wm. Neal at Grayson.

"It is thought that Mrs. Hunt's confession is a part of a great scheme to secure her release, and no one believes that Hunt killed Thomas, as she confesses, but there is no doubt that he killed Abnee. It was the nearest execution that has ever taken place in Kentucky, and makes the second man hung here by law since the war."

All persons having donations for the K. of P. bazar will please send them to Neptune Hall next Saturday, December 21st. Cakes or perishable goods will not be received before Monday.

PLUCKS THE PLUM.

The Fight Over the Maysville Postoffice Ended, and Mr. Thos. A. Davis Wins.

The Editor of the Republican Appointed to Succeed Mr. Respass.

The postoffice fight is at an end, and Brother Thomas A. Davis, of the Maysville Republican is smiling.

He has come out of the contest with colors flying, and is receiving congratulations to-day on his appointment to succeed Postmaster Respass.

The appointment was made yesterday, by President Harrison. About the first news Mr. Davis received of his good fortune was a telegram of congratulations from the Lexington Leader, with which paper he was formerly connected.

There hasn't been much said in the papers about the fight, yet the contest has been very warm for sometime.

The applicants were Mr. Davis, Mr. Newton C. Powell and Mr. Chas. Phister. Each had strong backing, and they have been keeping close watch of each other's every move from the start.

Postmaster Respass' commission expires on the 12th of next month, and Mr. Davis will be ready to step in as soon as Mr. Respass steps out.

The salary is $2,000 a year, and in addition he is allowed about $1,700 a year for two assistants.

The appointment will give general satisfaction. Mr. Davis is an earnest, unflinching Republican, and has always responded to the party's call. He is to be congratulated on his handsome Christmas gift he received yesterday at the hands of the President.

Mrs. Foster Clary, of Carlisle, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Berry, of Sedalia, Mo., have been making our neighborhood lively for the past week. Mrs. Clary is a fine organist and Mr. Berry flings a very sweet bow; together they make a splendid music, and are regarded as very attractive visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Berry will locate in Lexington where he will handle fine horses.

Miss Maud Wilson, of Frankfort, and Miss Clara Adams, of Paducah, Ky. will arrive home for the holidays, this week.

HIS EXPRESSION OF THANKS.

He is Grateful for the Compliment and Pictures a Bright Future for the Newly Explored Region in Africa - Other Foreign News.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 19.—A spontaneous gathering of the Indian community here waited upon Mr. Stanley yesterday and presented him with an address, inclosed in a silver casket, eulogizing his energy in opening Central Africa to commerce.

Mr. Stanley, in reply, expressed his grateful thanks for the unique compliment paid to him, and dwelt upon the bright prospects of the early development of the British East Africa company's territory. He especially urged the importance of connecting Mombassa by railway with the Victoria Nyanza, in view of the fact that the adjoining provinces were densely populated and would serve as an important market for now dormant European manufactures.

A Boulangist Protest.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The Boulangists have convened a monster meeting to protest against the action of the chamber of deputies in seating M. Joffin, who ran against Gen. Boulanger concerning the course to be followed by the Boulangists.

Postman Robbed of Diamonds.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The postoffice authorities now admit that the robbers who attacked the postman in Halton Garden yesterday took from him diamonds valued at £8,000. This statement is corroborated by the merchants to whom the diamonds were consigned.

A Mother's Influence.

BERLIN, Dec. 19.—The sentence of imprisonment recently imposed upon the editor of The Koenigsberg Gazette for libelling the Empress Frederick has been revoked, presumably at the instance of the empress, acting upon the suggestion of his mother.

Riotous Students.

ODESSA, Dec. 19.—The students of the university indulged in riotous demonstrations yesterday, which it was necessary for the police to use extraordinary force to quell. The university has been ordered closed.

B. E. Clark, of Iowa, was chosen temporary chairman. After a number of addresses by the delegates the convention adjourned until to-day, when the actual work will begin.
